

jurisdiction. In addition, petitioners ask the Court to enjoin respondents from implementing the provision.

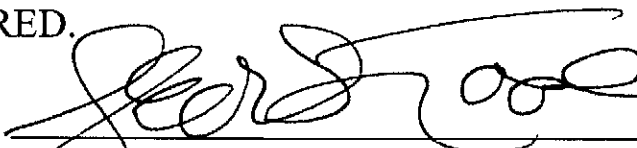

We grant the petition for original jurisdiction and the motion for a temporary injunction. Because the issues involved are purely matters of law, we find that discovery and fact finding are not necessary.

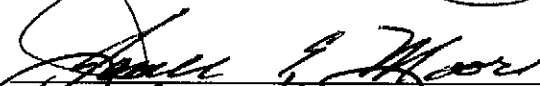

Respondents shall have thirty days from the date of this order to serve and file their answer to the complaint. Within ten days of the date of service of the answer, the parties shall agree on the matters to be included in the appendix. If the parties cannot agree, all matters designated by the parties shall be included in the appendix without prejudice to the right of petitioners to move for costs pursuant to Rule 222(c), SCACR, for printing irrelevant matter.

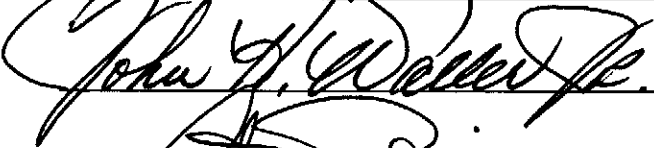

Petitioners shall serve three copies of their brief, which shall be in the form of a final brief, and the appendix on respondents, and file fifteen copies of their brief and the appendix with this Court within thirty days after agreement on the contents of the appendix. Within thirty days after service of petitioners' brief, respondents shall serve three copies of their briefs, also in the form of a final brief, on petitioners, and file fifteen copies of their briefs with this Court. Petitioners shall have ten days after service of the last respondent's brief in which to serve and file a reply brief in the manner set forth in Rule 208(a)(3), SCACR. The parties shall be notified if the Court finds that oral argument is necessary to resolve the issues in this matter.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

_____ C. J.

_____ J.

_____ J.

_____ J.

_____ J.

Columbia, South Carolina

June 26, 2008